"Pike" Albaugh, pitching for the Rose dale team, set the stage in the first in-ning of yesterday's game at the Termi-nal R. R. Y. M. C. A. Park and "Mike" Flannery, famed for his speed and long clouts, delivered in the pinch, making the final game of the intersectional series

the final game of the intersectional series read, Treasury, 5; Rosedale, 3.

The "money counters" slipped one over before Flannery came through with his punch, which cleared the fence in center field, and cleaned the bases. This one big session of this six-inning ball game was enough for the Treasury club, as the Rosedale team fought gamely to overtake this handicap, but failed to deliver the goods.

"Cross-fire" William Dust was on the slab for the "money counters," and although he was touched for seven safe ties, he kept them pretty well scattered, his cross-fire being quite a puzzle to the Toll Gate crowd. Manager Junghans gave his line-up a great shake-up in an at-tempt to set back the "money counters." Dyer, who was sent in to relieve Albaugh

PROFESSIONAL GOLF TOURNEY.

New York, Aug. 29.-An annual classic professional golfers will be inaugurated the first week in October, probably at the course of the Siwany Country Club of Mount Vernon. The event will be known as the annual championship of the Professional Golfers' Association of America for the Rodman Wanamaker prizes. For the pros it will be one of the richest events of the calendar.
